

Indigenous Student Success D2L - Connecting with Indigenous Students Remotely

This week, the Indigenous Education Secondary Team will be launching an Indigenous Student Success D2L shell. This space will allow you to connect with each other, access support through Direct Connect with Ms. Ransom (Re-engagement teacher and graduation coach) from 1-3pm Monday to Friday, receive notifications on upcoming events, post-secondary information, community involvement opportunities and to share your voice!

Opting Out:

All self-identified Indigenous students will be automatically registered. If you have been registered, but would like to 'opt-out' you can email Ms. Ransom Re-engagement teacher and graduation coach through D2L- Kurstien.ransom@dsbn.org

Opting In:

If you are Indigenous but have not self-identified with your school, you are still eligible to join the D2L page and access supports. You can complete the following google form to formally 'opt-in' to the D2L shell.
