

Results Canada – Niagara Volunteer Role

Results Niagara group is looking for team members to lead action on global justice issues during critical moments. You will work with other volunteers to lead actions in communities, engage decision makers, raise awareness on important issues, and execute creative tactics to win media attention.

You'll join a community of like-minded and passionate people. Our greatest strength is our volunteers - passionate, driven and inspired to create change. We bring different and unique skills, experiences and quirks to the table, you'll learn from the role and the people around you. Together we share the common unshakable belief that we are all equal, that we can work together to change the status quo for the good of all.

What is Results Canada?

Results Canada is a global movement of passionate citizens, committed to raising our voices for a world without extreme poverty. We combine the voices of our grassroots advocates with strategic advocacy efforts to leverage millions of dollars for programs and improved policies that give the world's poorest people the health, education, and opportunity they need to thrive.

What We're Looking For

- Someone passionate about ending poverty and committed to action to build the political will to end poverty.
- Someone interested in learning more about global issues and driven to make a difference.
- A "people person", excellent at building relationships and who loves to inspire, develop and motivate others.

We encourage you to apply if:

- You love creating something that encourages efficiency and ensures high-quality results.
- You have a creative mindset, willing to experiment, fail fast and fail often.
- You love solving problems, big and small, and are relentless in getting to solutions.
- You are interested in creating change and influencing decision makers to do so.
- You have excellent verbal and communication skills.

- You are organized and possess time management skills.
- You'd like to expand on any of these skills and abilities.
- You'd like to become an engaged advocate and a global citizen.

We know our capacity to create change is increased with diversity. We want to ensure Everyone's individuality can thrive, because you're at your best when you can be yourself. We encourage applicants with a diverse range of genders, cultures, language groups, abilities, and experiences to apply.

What You'll Get Out of It

- Be part of a community of like-minded people committed to creating change.
- Contribute your time, skills and energy to help others.
- Build meaningful relationships across the country with volunteers, staff and partner organizations that will see and be impacted by your work.
- Grow expertise in practical skills like running meetings, setting up processes and managing internal communications.
- Hone your skills in people management and leadership, including recruitment, training and diversity strategy.

Time Commitment

This varies among people. Whether it's 2 hours a month or 5 hours a week, your time is still meaningful and makes a huge impact! Volunteers are encouraged to join virtual monthly 'Education and Advocacy' meetings, lasting ~30-60 minutes.
